December 13, 2010

The week before Christmas Holiday will prove to be a busy one! We have a special outing planned, a 'breakfast party', and several important academic objectives this week. May you have a wonderful, restful, spirit-filled Christmas with your family!

- Bible – We will study the Christmas story this week; memory is Matthew 6:33-34; the written test on this set of memory verses has been rescheduled until January. Please sign your child's signature sheet by Friday.
- Reading – We will read, Island of the Blue Dolphin when we return in January. Christmas break is a great time to catch up on AR reading!
- Math – Lessons 41-43.
- History – We will begin Chapter 5 in January.
- Penmanship – Penmanship homework is assigned depending on your student's need to improve the readability of their cursive handwriting.

Class Christmas Party: Have your student dress in their 'Christmas best' for our Wednesday outing to the Arborview Nursing Home and the McAllen Country Club on Wednesday.

Friday Breakfast Party - Please let me know if you would like to bring in a breakfast treat on Friday morning, Dec. 17th, as we celebrate the last day of school before our long and blessed Christmas break.

Thank you to all parents who purchased Christmas cookies this week to help fund our spring field trip!

Speech Meet 2011 - The date has been set for February 3-4; your student should be receiving their selection from Ms Grace before the Christmas holiday break.

Math Tutoring – Will resume on Wednesday, January 5; everyone is welcome, however, some students have been specifically invited. Students should come with tests and homework on which they have questions. Plan to pick up your child in the classroom at 4:30pm.

Please read the newsletters of Ms Grace and Senora Claudia to stay current!

Have a blessed holiday!
