

GRACE APREA JOHNSON CLASS 5A
Newsletter 12/13/10

Thank You, Mrs. Huerta and Mrs. Mc Daniel for covering my classes while I had a wonderful shopping day. You both did a fantastic job!

This week we will reflect on the birth of Jesus, Our King. It is truly a time of CELEBRATION! One way to praise our Lord is through song, and 5A will go caroling to spread some Christmas joy. Be on the lookout for us. © 2010 is winding down quickly, and we are looking forward to all of God's blessings for us in 2011.

REMINDERS:

Dec.15, Class Christmas Party and Caroling. We will have a gift exchange. Please purchase and wrap a grade-appropriate book which can be enjoyed by both girls and boys. Please bring it to class by Monday, Dec. 13th.

Dec. 16, Christmas Program, 7:00 pm in Ms. Cheri's Gym.

Dec. 17, Spirit Day-Students may wear Christmas shirts and jeans, also half day-Release time 12:00

Christmas Break-Dec. 17th -Jan. 4 (teachers return Jan. 3, 2011)

THIS WEEK:

Bible: The Christmas Story /Memory Verses/Christmas Caroling

Reading: Work with Read and Comprehend Students will begin presenting their biographical book report presentations today in full costume of their character. Continue to encourage reading for learning and AR points.

Language Arts: Diagramming sentences.

Spelling/Vocabulary: Fun reviewing

Science: Life Cycles—Life Expectancy in animals, Mondays, Science Lab

Writing: 6+1 Writing Traits used in our creative stories about the true meaning of Christmas.

Penmanship: Review and practice cursive writing.

Math/History: See 5B Newsletter

Spanish: See Spanish Newsletter

Wishing you a Blessed Christmas and a Joyous New Year, 2011

Grace Aprea Johnson